

You Feel the Love

Vicky Nguyen has been a volunteer since Camp opened—as well as an ambassador, a half marathoner, and much more. When she was diagnosed with cancer in 2018, she drew on strength learned from lessons at The Painted Turtle. To Vicky, Camp is a refuge in a world that can be draining and present difficult challenges, medical or otherwise. "I feel like there's almost a magical barrier at the front gate of Camp. When you pass through and enter Camp, everything that you worry about in your day to day life is gone. It takes your breath away. You feel like you're safe," says Vicky. In her eyes, Camp is an antidote to negativity in the world. Read more

Vicky Nguyen enjoys Camp with fellow longtime volunteers, Pops (left) and Pun (right).

Bingo!

Thank you to everyone who came out and made our 16th annual Bingo at the Roxy so sweet! We'd like to give special shout out to The Rainbow Bar and Grill, AEG, and Goldenvoice for making this memorable evening possible. It was a fabulous night with celebrity callers and amazing prizes, all in support of the magical place we know to be Camp. Read more

Heart Full of Camp

For a family who has a child with Pulmonary Hypertension, going away for a weekend of adventure is no small task. The Painted Turtle helps families focus on the fun!

Read more

Community Volunteer Day

This past Saturday, 50 hardworking and dedicated volunteers lent helping hands to prepare Camp for our upcoming Spring Family Weekend season!

Read more

2019 Stats

2018 Annual Report

The Painted Turtle never charges children and families to attend Camp, but this promise can only be kept because of dedicated and kind-hearted supporters like you who understand the value that an authentic camp experience brings to children who may otherwise never have the opportunity. Check out our latest Annual Report acknowledging moments made possible by the generosity of our Camp community. Read more

